The event is staged annually at Port Stephens and is the largest game fishing event of its kind in the Southern Hemisphere. The 2010 Nautilus Boat Insurance Interclub Tournament is due to be staged over the week February 27/28 and March 6/7.

In signing the four-year naming rights sponsorship agreement, Nautilus Marine CEO Lyndon Turner said that it was wonderful to be able to support NSWGFA and those anglers who enter the event.

“This is a wonderful partnership which benefits both Nautilus Marine and the NSWGFA,” Lyndon Turner said.

The 2010 Interclub will be the 48th NSWGFA Interclub Tournament where clubs within the NSWGFA compete on various levels. It is expected that there will be up to 1000 anglers competing aboard as many as 200 boats.

"We are impressed with the NSWGFA as an organisation and in particular the well established, well conducted Interclub event. Nautilus Marine is proud to lend its name to the event and we all look forward to great fishing and great boating weather."

The 2010 Nautilus Boat Insurance Interclub event itself spans four days, the Saturday and Sunday of consecutive weekends. In between there are a number of fishing events dedicated to sponsors/trade day, Ladies Day and the International Billfish Tournament.

"This is nine consecutive days of exciting game fishing," said NSWGFA President Don Goswell. "Winning the support of Nautilus Marine provides the event with a magnificent boost which will see the Interclub go from strength to strength."
